People of the Bible: A Character Study
June 27th to July 25th led by Steve Savia

God, in His word, gives us stories of people: people who are in so many ways just like us. They struggle with their faith and in their service. This series on Characters in the Bible will look at five of those people and discuss the lessons that we can all learn from their lives.

Augustine of Hippo
August 1st to 29th led by John Wood

A 5 week journey into the world, life, philosophy and theology of St. Augustine, arguably the most influential Christian writer outside the Bible. We will explore his early life, his conversion, his writings and the influence he had and continues to have on Christian theology and practice.
